

2022 Association Newsletter

PRESIDENT'S POST

The big event is back! Beth and Jim Muller are completing plans for the upcoming military appreciation day honoring three Dolphin Cove residents. The one-hour program begins at 10:00am Saturday April 23, 2022 (Sunday in case of rain) and will be tremendous. Bring an outdoor "camping" chair. Check the website for the latest details and plan to attend.

We plan on continuing with speakers at our meetings. We've invited Joe McAnarney, who has experience with land development rules and growth. Joe was a professional architect and is very familiar with the GATE project. Later in the year, Lia Sansom the Reserve Manager at the Guana Research Reserve, will give a talk. Additional speakers planned for 2022/23 include a historian, county code enforcement, native plant expert, sheriff deputy, real estate tips, transportation engineer & more.

Also, on March 1, we will hold our elections. No one gets pushed into running; see what's involved and think about it. Our community is stronger with fresh ideas. Thank you, current officers: Eileen (VP), Ronda (treasurer), Karen (secretary), Beth (events) and Justin (membership).

A big hit of 2021 was Movies at the Park. The Mullers aired Princess Bride and Hook. Films are free, family safe and fun for all ages! Please make plans to attend on Saturday March 19 and check dcPVB.com for future events. Have an idea for a movie, speaker or something else? Email us your ideas to dolphin.cove@outlook.com

Remember to send in your ($30 suggested) membership...it covers events and newsletter expenses. Your donation also maintains the entrance sign, pressure washing, island maintenance, irrigation water, replacement plants, shrubs and palms. As we know, A1A traffic and salty ocean winds really beat up the entrance. Checks and PayPal (see dcPVB.com) accepted.

Too many have lost their lives to COVID-19. We are going to lean toward safety again in 2022. We all want this awful virus to vanish, until then, please have a mask with you for our indoor meetings.

Thank you for all you do to make this community a wonderful place to live and raise a family.

Mark Nickerson, President

Special thanks to Bernie Bristow with Navy to Navy Homes for her assistance printing the envelopes for this newsletter.
