

2024 Association Newsletter

PRESIDENT'S POST

Each association meeting has a captivating speaker. In 2023 we heard from me (Florida Trail), Scott Grant (Palm Valley history), Gail Cooper (fightthepud.com) and Commissioner Krista Joseph (SJC Update).

Starting the year will be Roderick Potter (Code Enforcement) and we await responses from DOT, Fish & Wildlife, native plants, growth management, home improvement and more.

In 2022 a park improvement committee that included: Eileen, Mark, Karen, Cathy, Chris, Gregg, Mark, Kevin, Rob, Beth, Jim and Jennifer was formed. After surveying the community, presenting a proposal to county leadership and waiting nearly one year, our efforts resulted in $200,000 allocated for park improvement planning & design. Public comment on the design will be sought this spring. In September the commissioners will vote on the FY 2025 budget, we hope for $2 million for our park!

In November commissioners approved the Ponte Vedra Inn & Club Planned Unit Development (PUD). We will likely notice an increase in A1A traffic and noise and dirt from tennis court construction on the Gate tract. The chain link fence was finally replaced, and a number of trees were planted. No word on any future / rumored development on the parcel. Stay tuned.

Remember to send in your ($30 suggested) membership...it covers events and newsletter expenses. Your donation also maintains our entrance sign, its pressure washing, island maintenance, irrigation water, replacement plants, shrubs, and palms. As we know, A1A traffic and salty ocean winds really beat up the entrance. Checks and PayPal (see dcPVB.com) accepted.

Thank you for all you do to make this community a wonderful place to live, raise a family or retire.

Please consider a $30 donation for the upkeep of our entrance sign and island maintenance which gives a good first impression to our community. Your support funds: community events, annual state fees, monthly water bills, the annual newsletter, postage, and also builds a sense of community.

We encourage everyone to become involved, volunteer, and suggest ideas. Thank you for your donation and for showing your pride in our community by caring for it!
